

JOHN F. PETO
STUDIO MUSEUM

The Strength of Song and Dance

A family-friendly event featuring music and rhythmic movements traditional to the Lenape and Nanticoke tribes

The Ellis-Gould family of the Nanticoke Lenni-Lenape tribe, and Lenapehoking Reestablishment Project, will be exhibiting some of these dance styles, educating the public on a variety of art forms, and selling indigenous crafts during the event.

Event Details

Sunday, May 5, 2024
1: 00 p.m. - 2:00 p.m.

John F. Peto Studio Museum
102 Cedar Ave. | Island Heights

This family-friendly event is free. For more information and to register; scan the QR code:

Museum donations welcome to continue programming

The John F. Peto Studio Museum received funding this year from a grant administered by the Ocean County Cultural & Heritage Commission from funds granted by the New Jersey State Council on the Arts and the New Jersey Historical Commission, a division of the Department of State.

